SULLIVAN & CROMWELL COLLECTION 2014

December 17, 2014

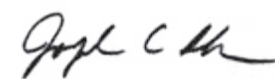

Dear Cristian,

On behalf of your friends at Sullivan & Cromwell, please accept our deep gratitude for providing us with this collection of your extraordinary photographs. We are delighted to display them on the 38th floor of our offices at 125 Broad Street and in Washington, D.C.

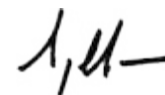

Your photographs are meaningful to our Firm, both because of the depth and length of our partners' personal and professional relationship with you and because your photographs reflect our global culture and practice. We also appreciate Dana Tuluca's efforts as the unofficial curator of our Mitrani collection.

We are delighted that current and future generations of S&C lawyers will enjoy your beautiful art. Thank you so much for your generosity and friendship.

Sincerely,

Joseph C. Shenker
